"I have been a member of the Paramedic Chiefs of Canada for over eight years. The ability to connect with other Paramedic leaders across the country has provided me with the benefit of mentorship and leadership development. To be a part of a national paramedic voice is imperative to the success of Paramedic Services coast to coast. Having access to leading edge research, and the network of the Pan-Canadian organizations across the globe provides invaluable input towards enhancing and improving our system in our local communities."
